

NEXT STEP, LLC.

A full service construction management company.
Take your land from bare ground to a fully furnished home.

Efficiency

- Next Step has contacts in place, ready to fulfill our building requirements. Only the highest quality craftsmen gain our referral.
- Next Step buys materials in bulk. What this means to you is savings. We typically save 25% - 30 % on materials alone.

Quality

- Next step retains only craftsmen with attention to detail, meaning, you get a better built home.
- Next Step has contacts in place to gain you the highest quality materials and finishing touches

Service

- You are involved as much or as little as you decide to be. Our experienced personnel are capable of supervising all facets of construction, from home concept and planning to interior decoration and furnishing.

Innovation

- We specialize in building, designing and developing FAA accepted residential Air-parks. We can duplicate this sensitive process from coast to coast.

Next Step is building your dreams. Your next step is to call Next Step!
